Now in its 37th year, the weekend is set to be packed full of family-friendly entertainment including the popular Community Carnival. Turn to pages 14 & 15 to take a look at some of this year's highlights.

We are continuing with our commitment to improve school buildings across the Borough. On page 7 you can find out more about how the Council is investing £7.5million in the refurbishment of Oxbridge Primary School to provide a more modern and improved teaching environment.

Volunteering within your community is one of the most rewarding things you can do. Turn to page 11 where you can find out more about our new 'proud to care' campaign which shines a light on our amazing residents who are proud champions of Stockton-on-Tees. You can also find out more about how you can volunteer in your local community, such as becoming a volunteer driver which you can read more about on page 10.

If you are looking for something to do this summer, head to page 17 where you can read about the exciting range of opportunities to keep active. From Aqua Paddle to free Park Play sessions across selected parks in the Borough, there is something for everyone.

Do you know the Council is trialling 'no mow sites'? These are areas of grassland across the Borough that will not be cut this summer to help us identify what natural wildflowers grow there and how this benefits local wildlife. We would love to see your photos. Turn to page 20 to find out how to get involved.

There are lots of exciting plans taking shape for our town centres. Turn to pages 18 & 19 to read the latest update about Billingham Town Centre, and the creation of a modern, fit-for-purpose, five lane swimming pool and gym in Thornaby as well as the redevelopment of the Golden Eagle site.

And finally, at the Council's annual meeting in April, Councillor John Gardener was sworn in as the new Mayor of Stockton-on-Tees. You can read more about our new Mayor on page 25.

Newport Bridge improvements

Newport Bridge is temporarily closed for major construction work this summer.

The work, which started on Monday 8 July, is expected to take around seven weeks and includes bridge joint and bearing replacement, new drainage channels, waterproofing and carriageway resurfacing.

During this time, the A1032 from Newport roundabout to Portrack interchange will be closed with access for affected businesses only. Signed traffic diversions will be in place.

New scheme saves resident's life

A family who had a carbon monoxide alarm fitted as part of a scheme funded by Thornaby Town Deal had their lives saved thanks to the device.

Shugufta Ali had a carbon monoxide alarm fitted along with other security measures at her home in North Thornaby after she received a letter to inform her that she was one of 1,500 properties eligible for the free scheme.

A month later, the alarm alerted her to the gas boiler in her home emitting poisonous carbon monoxide gas which could have been fatal to her family. She credits the scheme for saving her life, as the odourless gas is life threatening and she would not be aware of the leak without the alarm.

Find out if you are eligible for support from the scheme: www.stockton.gov.uk/thornaby/town-deal

Care Leavers Local Offer

If you are a care leaver, or are about to leave care, there's a range of support on offer.

Stockton-on-Tees has a care leavers' Local Offer which has been created by young people who are currently cared for and those who are care experienced. It brings together in one place at www.stockton.gov.uk/care-leavers-local-offer the support available.

The Council has committed to an Employability Promise to support our care experienced young people into education, training and employment. This includes help with CVs, interview techniques, help applying for apprenticeships and jobs and guaranteeing an interview for Council vacancies providing the Person Specification for a role is met.

Plus, the 'No Limits Hub' is also available for children in care and care leavers to drop in to for support.

Head Girl Ridhima and Head Boy Adam learn about the history of Bovesfield School with Miss McNeilly

The Bovesfield Story

With a state-of-the-art building, modern classrooms and over two acres of grassland, trees and playground, Bovesfield Primary School is an oasis of learning, right in the heart of Stockton.

Since opening in 1881, many staff and pupils have passed through the original Bovesfield Lane buildings and the current school on Northcote Street.

Janet McNeilly joined Bovesfield in 1984 and works with the children to learn about the school's history and changes to the local area.

Miss McNeilly said: "Our today is tomorrow's history. It's important to remember all those who came before, and important that we leave our mark on the school."

Recently rated by Ofsted as 'Good' across the board, and with an 'Outstanding' early years provision, the school offers children a caring and compassionate learning environment.

Visit www.bovesfieldprimary.org.uk for more information about the school and its history.

£7.5m for Oxbridge Lane Primary School

Multi-million pound renovation works at Oxbridge Lane Primary School are on the way which will provide a modern and improved teaching environment for the 135 year old primary school.

New facilities at the school are set to include a new entrance and lobby, kitchen, nursery area and entrance and a multi-use games area (MUGA).

Head Teacher, Lauren Amerigo said: "The upgraded facilities will provide a modern and conducive learning environment for our pupils. The works will help the school become more of a central community hub and will bring our nursery provision onto the same site and give Oxbridge Lane a school kitchen which will help provide our own healthy meals for the children."

The refurbishment will be funded by the Council as part of its multi-million pound investment to improve school buildings across the Borough.

Giving young people the skills to build their careers

Do you know a young person with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) who may need help accessing employment?

Supported Internships help young people with SEND to gain valuable workplace experience and a stepping stone into employment.

Structured work-based study programmes support 16 to 24-year-olds who have an education, health and care plan (EHCP) who would not be able to access employment without support.

Interns will develop their job skills and independence whilst attending a full-time college placement in a subject area of their choice. The college each young person attends will create a personalised study programme that meets their needs and provides progression, alongside time with an employer.

For more information, contact the SEN Team on 01642 527145 or speak to your Careers Adviser.

SPOTLIGHT ON

Our regular "Spotlight On" feature highlights organisations from the Borough's voluntary, community and social enterprise sector. In this issue, we're looking at Teesside Vineyard Church.

Teesside Vineyard Church, Thornaby, is part of the Vineyard Movement group of churches and gathers people from across the Tees Valley.

Kat Dawson, who is the Children's and Community Pastor for the church, said: "Our church is a hub of activity and provides so much support for the community. Whether it's the Vine Café, which is open every Wednesday 10am to 12pm and offers a warm, friendly place for people to meet over a free cuppa and a slice of cake, and advice on a variety of issues.

"Or our Grow Baby service which provides free, high quality, new and second-hand clothing and other essentials for children aged 0 to five years. The Little Seedlings playgroup offers a place for 0 to five-year-olds to play and socialise alongside their parents and carers. We also run a sports club for 10 to 16-year-olds.

"This year we have also expanded our support to be a 'The Bread and Butter Thing' venue to give people access to nutritious and affordable food. This low-cost weekly shop, run by volunteers, provides essential produce, fridge favourites and cupboard staples."

You can find out more about Teesside Vineyard Church by visiting their website at www.teessidevineyardchurch.co.uk.

Working together to make Ropner and Stockton Town Centre safer

Work is underway to help reduce crime and improve the lives of residents in the Ropner Ward area, including a new drop-in surgery.

Project Harmony is part of the Home Office's national 'Clear, Hold, Build' approach, which operates in areas affected by organised crime with neighbourhood policing teams taking the lead on tackling it.

In Ropner Ward, as well as Cleveland Police, it is supported by the Council, North East Ambulance Service, Cleveland Fire Brigade, Thirteen Group as well as charities and voluntary and community organisations like Catalyst and Corner House Youth Project.

Following a community consultation, a local neighbourhood delivery plan has now been developed and is being delivered to respond to local issues in the area.

Local residents groups are being established in the area and a Ropner Partnership multi-agency drop-in surgery is now being held every month. Come along to ask questions and get advice from a variety of organisations and to discuss any concerns and issues.

The next multi-agency drop in is a family fun afternoon on Wednesday 10 July, 3pm to 6pm at Farooq E Azam Mosque & Islamic Centre, Bovesfield Lane, Stockton, TS18 3EB.

Changing Places at ARC Stockton

Making it Real Board - Update

In the last edition of Stockton-on-Tees News, we announced the launch of the 'Making it Real Board' which puts people with lived experience of adults and health services at the heart of decision making. Here is the latest update from the Making it Real Board.

We have welcomed some new members and have really embedded the principles of co-production. Following a Development Day in May we are finalising group agreements about how it will work together, so that everyone can contribute and have their voices heard and are valued for their involvement equally.

Work has started on a 'local account' which will inform residents about how Adults Health & Wellbeing services in our area are working, including priorities and future action areas.

Making it Real Board member, Claire Andrews, said: "It's been challenging yet rewarding. We want the opportunity to influence and coproduce, so our services really reflect our needs and lived experiences. We want to provide that 'reality check' of what it is really like on the other side of service provision. But most importantly we want the best care and support for all residents in the Stockton-on-Tees area."

We are really keen to 'make it real' for everyone in the Borough. So, over the next 3 months will be actively seeking out members, voices and experiences from individuals and groups that are not currently represented in discussions.

If you would like to know more about Making it Real in Stockton-on-Tees, email involvement@stockton.gov.uk or call 01642 528622.

We are proud to care

The Council has launched a campaign to shine a light on amazing residents from across our Borough who care about their local area and are proud to champion Stockton-on-Tees.

The '#proudtocare' campaigns will highlight residents who support their local communities in a range of ways, such as Dave Wilson, who organises historic walks, Elliot Gordon, who regularly litter picks in his local area to keep it clean and tidy, and Pauline Allen, who volunteers at her local food pantry to help those needing some extra support.

If you are interested in volunteering in your local community, visit www.stocktonvolunteers.co.uk. You can also follow the Council's social media channels for updates on the proud to care campaign.

The King's representatives in Stockton-on-Tees

Lord-Lieutenant, Mrs Jo Ropner visiting students at Stockton Riverside College

A Lord-Lieutenant is His Majesty The King's personal representative and there is one in each county. They are appointed by His Majesty and the post is non-political and unpaid.

The Lord-Lieutenant of County Durham Mrs Sue Snowden, and Lord-Lieutenant of North Yorkshire Mrs Jo Ropner represent The King in Stockton-on-Tees.

Stockton-on-Tees is special as it can claim to have two Lord-Lieutenants due to the River Tees running through the centre of the town. The Lord-Lieutenant of County Durham, Mrs Sue Snowden, to the north of the Tees and the Lord-Lieutenant of North Yorkshire Mrs Jo Ropner to the south of the Tees.

The responsibilities of the Lord-Lieutenant include:

- Arranging visits by members of the Royal Family and escorting visitors
- Presenting medals and awards on behalf of the Sovereign, and advising on Honours nominations

- Participating in civic, voluntary and social activities within the Lieutenancy
- Acting as liaison with local units of the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Army, Royal Air Force and their associated cadet forces
- Leading the local magistracy as chairman of the Advisory Committee on Justices of the Peace

Part of their role is to encourage nominations to the Kings Award for Voluntary Service. The award celebrates the outstanding work of local volunteer groups across the UK. Last year, Lord-Lieutenant Sue Snowden presented local charity Sprouts with a Kings Award for their commitment to the voluntary service.

The award is the equivalent of an MBE, and recognise groups that are truly outstanding and making a big difference to their local community.

Nominations for 2025 will be open from 1 September to 1 December 2024. Visit kavs.dcms.gov.uk for information on how to make a nomination.

Building a healthier future together

Partnership and community working have been highlighted in this year's Director of Public Health Report as ways of tackling the health inequalities experienced by people in the Borough.

The 2023-2024 report describes the actions being taken to address challenges facing the Borough because of the cost-of-living crisis, the ongoing impact of the Covid-19 pandemic, and the financial pressure on local authorities.

Whilst tackling poverty and deprivation remains important, the report acknowledges that action must go beyond this to address the many factors leading to inequality.

Sarah Bowman-Abouna, Director of Public Health, said: "There is a real will and passion to address inequality across our local health and wellbeing system and to work in partnership together with communities, who sit at the heart of all we do.

"We now need to drive forward our collective activities to improve outcomes with, and for, local people."

Swimming in Books

Making a splash in libraries and leisure centres across the Borough is a new programme designed to inspire reading at the earliest age. Families with children under five-years-old are encouraged to join the library and dive into a good book. The library is free to join and there's lots for little ones to enjoy.

Working in partnership with Tees Active Leisure, Swimming in Books will feature themed library rhyme times, a series of special story and play sessions and an action-packed Swimming in Books Festival, which will take place at Stockton Central Library and Splash Leisure Centre on Saturday 14 September.

Children under 5 who are enrolled on Tees Active's Learn to Swim programme will be given extra encouragement to connect their love of water with a love of words by picking up a free book.

Our six towns

Concept designs for the redevelopment of Billingham

A step forward for Billingham town centre

Proposals to purchase part of Billingham Town Centre as part of a continued commitment to invest in the town and bring about transformational change was considered by the Council's Cabinet last month.

The plans would see the purchase of West Precinct, including the former library site and Queensway South buildings and are part of an emerging masterplan for Billingham Town Centre, which include concept designs for the creation of a new residential area, new retail space and improvements to parking, public toilets, accessibility and public realm. This also includes the refurbishment of the former Council office, Wynyard House, which will ensure the authority retains a presence in the town centre.

The purchase and demolition of the town centre would be funded by £20million secured from the Government's Levelling Up Fund for the Stockton North constituency. The plans were drawn up following the 'Let's Talk About Our Towns' public consultation in 2020.

Demolition is expected to begin in early 2025.

Transforming Thornaby

CGI showing the proposed new leisure facility

Exciting plans are underway to create a new modern leisure facility in Thornaby.

The Council has reached agreement to take control of the Golden Eagle hotel in Thornaby so that the building can be demolished to make way for the development of the site using funding from the Thornaby Town Deal. This follows the Council taking control of the vacant Phoenix House site in January 2022 and demolishing it last summer.

The site will be regenerated to create a modern, fit-for purpose, five-lane swimming pool and gym next to the Phoenix House site, linking to the Pavilion leisure centre. The new leisure facility would include gym changing facilities on the first floor, as well as a new entrance, public realm improvements and enhanced parking.

A planning application for the building's demolition will be submitted in autumn, with demolition expected to begin before the end of the year. Construction on the new swimming pool is expected to begin next year, subject to planning approval.

NETA Training has also unveiled plans for the development of its purpose-built centre in Thornaby as part of the Town Deal.

The new campus, delivered in partnership with the Council, will enhance the delivery of quality engineering and construction training in the Borough for young people and adults.

Design is underway on the new building, which will be situated on the Stockton Riverside Collect site, with work expected to start late in the summer following planning approval.

Progress at Stockton Waterfront

Work continues on Stockton Waterfront urban park construction

The construction of Stockton Waterfront urban park is continuing at pace. New images show the progress of the piling works to accommodate ground conditions, as well as work to the reinforced concrete wall structures on the western side of the new road alignment on Riverside Road.

Paving work is also being undertaken on Finkle Street, which will show the first visual signs of the urban park in place. The work to Finkle Street will complement the new Finkle Square in the urban park, which will be the main arrival point from the centre of the High Street.

Its location will combine the urban park with existing streetscape on Finkle Street and will include a more intimate setting. The square will include, seating, heritage interpretation and further space and services for hosting events.

Find out more about the progress of Stockton Waterfront at www.stockton.gov.uk/stockton/urban-park

Stockton Town Hall

Stockton Town Hall

Maintenance and repair work to the Stockton Town Hall, roofs, clock tower and windows were completed in May.

During the conservation work, structural timber and masonry repair works have been made to the clock tower, while leadwork to the clock tower roofs and the spire have also been replaced as part of the repair works.

Sections of roof tiles have been replaced, and lightning protection has been installed. The final steps also included the refurbishment of a number of the town hall windows and the reassembly of the iconic clock mechanism.

Norton High Street works progressing

Improvements under way on Norton High Street

Improvements to Norton High Street are continuing, with the first phase of paving works open to the public and businesses and the second phase of paving underway.

The plans include the creation of a northbound one-way system at the southern section of the High Street, which is now in place. Improvements to extend the pedestrianised areas and additional car or taxi spaces are ongoing.

The second phase of paving work is underway, which includes highway and footpath works between Harland Place and Holly Street towards the Red Lion.

Find out more about the scheme and the phases of work visit www.stockton.gov.uk/norton/high-street

CGI of the new exhibition space at Preston Park Museum

Work continues at Preston Park Museum

Exciting next steps for transforming Preston Park Museum & Grounds

The construction of the new extension to Preston Park Museum is continuing. The two-storey building's steelwork frame and flooring is in place and work to create over 100 additional parking spaces is also underway.

Meanwhile, plans for improved café and toilets have been approved, as part of efforts to upgrade facilities for visitors to this much-loved destination. This includes refurbishment of the park café, with a new, covered outdoor seating area, facing onto the children's play area. A new building, connected to the café, will house new toilets including accessible 'Changing Places' facilities.

Work is expected to start on the café and toilets improvement later this month.

Protecting our natural environment

In the each edition of Stockton-on-Tees News we update you on our ambitious ten-year Environmental Sustainability and Carbon Reduction Strategy and how we are working to achieve the four key aims of the plan.

They are:

1. Achieve net zero greenhouse gas emissions as a Council
2. Protect and enhance the natural environment
3. Use all resources efficiently and minimise waste
4. Adapt to the impact of climate change

In this edition, we look at how we're encouraging biodiversity in our grassed areas; a brand-new event dedicated to tackling climate change; and how the young people in the Borough are showing the way...

No Mow Summer

Nineteen areas of grassland throughout the Borough will not be cut this summer to see what natural wildflowers grow there and how this benefits wildlife and biodiversity.

Throughout the spring and summer, the natural wildflowers and pollinating insects visiting the sites will be surveyed. The margins of the areas will continue to be cut and the no mow areas will all be cut at the end of the summer.

If you're out and about at one of our 'No Mow' sites and see some wildflowers or wildlife, we'd love to see a picture. Tag us in your photos using #ourbeautifulborough #NoMowSummer on social media.

Stockton-on-Tees Environment Fair

The first Stockton-on-Tees Environment Fair took place last month on Stockton High Street.

The special fair was part of national 'Great Big Green Week', which celebrates community action to tackle climate change and protect nature. Anyone who came could speak to local organisations, take part in activities, find out about local volunteering opportunities and see how they can support the Borough with its aim to reach net zero by 2050.

Northfield School – environment champions!

Northfield school are doing some fantastic activities to promote sustainability. These environmentally friendly initiatives include creating a sensory garden for visually impaired pupils and a wellbeing and allotment garden, planting 1,000 tree whips and 20 mature trees across the school site, and not using single-use plastics within the school, as well as only using recyclable bottles and bamboo cutlery in the café areas.

A once in a generation opportunity for the Tees Valley

Ambitious proposals to develop a Care and Health Innovation Zone in Stockton-on-Tees are ready to transform central Stockton and North Thornaby into a nationally significant cluster of social care and health provision.

The vision outlines how Teesdale Business Park and the nearby Tees Marshalling Yards will be home to social care and health services, sector-specific businesses, research, teaching and learning facilities, and housing to meet local needs.

A partnership board with representatives from Teesside University, Tees Esk and Wear Valley NHS Trust, North Tees NHS Trust, the Education Training Collective (Stockton Riverside College) and the Tees Valley Combined Authority has been set up to drive the project forward.

This will be a once in a generation opportunity which could deliver a nationally significant zone bringing a host of benefits to the Borough and the whole of the Tees Valley. The zone will help to reduce health inequalities within the Tees Valley, with the site pioneering modern health provision to better meet residents' needs.

A new base for pizza peddling success story

After working a corporate office job for 15 years, James, founder of Flaming Dough and Crust, took the plunge to change his hobby into a business and has never looked back.

Flaming Dough is a mobile wood-fired pizza van stationed at regular spots in Billingham and Wynyard three nights a week as well as catering for events including weddings and corporate events.

"I started Flaming Dough as a hobby alongside my day job back in February 2022" James said. "It was all very quick: I mentioned the idea to my wife one evening, and then the next day I collected a 1960's horse trailer.

"Three months later it was converted into a mobile catering unit, and we started selling pizzas on an evening alongside my day job."

James' passion for good food has led to a loyal following.

"Seeing the same faces come back week after week made me realise how much more I enjoyed creating food that people love."

The success of Flaming Dough has allowed James to expand the business to a permanent location on Norton High Street: Crust.

"After 2 years of operating Flaming Dough as a hobby the perfect unit became available in Norton and Crust was born, leading to me making the decision to leave my corporate job.

James, owner of Flaming Dough and Crust in Norton

"I love Norton village. I've grown up here and always loved the idea of opening a place in my community. It's a great place to live, the people are superb, and we've experienced huge support from the people of Stockton-on-Tees."

Flaming Dough offers hand-stretched wood-fired pizzas and can be found in Wynyard on a Wednesday evening, and Billingham Ecology Park every Thursday and Friday evening.

Crust is a small deli offering breakfast and lunch options, including their famous pizza sandwich, open seven days a week from 8:30am – 3pm (9am on weekends). You can find them on social media @flamingdough or @crustnorton.

If you're interested in setting up your own business or want to expand an existing one, visit www.investstocktonontees.co.uk to see why it's a great place to live, work and play.

LIFE

Juliet Hardy is the Creative Programmes Manager and Artistic Director of SIRF working in the Council's events team. Juliet has worked at the council for seven years.

It's a busy time of year for Juliet as Artistic Director for SIRF, which takes place in the heart of Stockton Town Centre the first weekend in August.

She said "My day involves so many different things and a lot of talking! I may have a strategic planning meeting with national and international partners in the morning, then be onsite looking at spaces with artists in the afternoon. And I spend time onsite looking at spaces with artists with complex shows so we can check what will work best – often biking around the town to map out a walking show, speaking to businesses and measuring spaces. Everything is planned thoroughly, from tricky travel logistics, road closures, sound, lighting, event site infrastructure to marketing and reaching audiences.

"A big part of my job is finding the very best artistic work and build the festival like a big jigsaw. To help me, each year I have a theme to thread all the shows together – 2024 is 'Joy!' It is important to have shows that allow people to be transported to different places, be invited to play and daydream and most importantly belly laugh!

"SIRF is a real team effort. Everyone loves working towards delivering the best SIRF we can for residents and visitors.

"I have grown up in Stockton and I feel a huge sense of pride and responsibility to ensure we create exceptional and extraordinary experiences."

Drive to improve private rental standards takes a step forward

Under the proposals, all private landlords operating in Central Stockton, Newtown and Thornaby will be required to obtain a licence from the Council.

The licence will be valid for up to five years and is set to contain a series of conditions that the licence holder will be required to comply with. Some of the conditions include gas, electrical and fire safety, property and tenancy management and tackling anti-social behaviour.

This follows on from the findings of a detailed consultation, which ran from November 2023 until January 2024 and found that across the three areas, 62 per cent of all residents who responded were in favour of the proposals.

Selective Licensing is proposed in Central Stockton and North Thornaby on the basis this area is or is likely to become an area of low housing demand. In Newtown the area has been brought forward due to high levels of crime and anti-social behaviour, with all three areas having a high proportion of privately rented properties.'

The official start date for the Selective Licensing scheme will be confirmed this summer.

Meet your new Mayor of Stockton-on-Tees

Councillor John Gardner is the new Mayor of Stockton-on-Tees. He was officially installed in April, replacing Councillor Jim Beall at the end of his mayoral year.

Born in the Borough, Councillor Gardner lived in Fairfield and attended Fairfield Junior School and Grangefield Grammar School for Boys.

Councillor Gardner had a successful career in the motor industry, initially working for Charlie Brown's Autocentres as an Operations Manager before leaving to join Ford Motor Company, where he was a Business Manager for more than 25 years. He is now retired.

He has represented the Northern Parishes Ward since 2007.

In his Mayoral year, Councillor Gardner's wife Paula will be the Mayoress. Mrs Gardner is a retired pharmacist and worked for the NHS throughout her career before becoming an inspector, ensuring that standards in pharmacies across Stockton-on-Tees and the Tees Valley were upheld.

The couple have lived in Wynyard for 21 years and have a son, two daughters and five grandchildren which keep them busy!

Councillor Gardner said: "In my Mayoral year I want to focus on local issues and get out across Stockton-on-Tees to meet with people and really listen to their experiences, opinions and the issues they face. I'm looking forward to supporting local causes and charities, and as someone who has lived in the Borough all my life am honoured and proud to take up this role."

The chosen charities for the year are close to the Mayor's heart - Parkinson's UK and local charity, Leo's Neonatal. One of Councillor Gardner's grandchildren was born prematurely and benefitted from the support Leo's Neonatal provided to them as a family.

This year's Deputy Mayor is Councillor Stephen Richardson who represents the Fairfield Ward. The Deputy Mayoress is Sophie Craig.

The retiring Mayor, Councillor Jim Beall, raised £42,484 for his nominated charities, Eastern Raven's Trust and the North East Autism Society.
